McNEESE STATE UNIVERSITY OPERATIONAL PLAN FY 2009 - FY 2010

OPERATIONAL PLAN FORM PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

PROGRAM NAME: 19A-627 McNeese State University

PROGRAM AUTHORIZATION:

McNeese State University, a member of the University of Louisiana System, is authorized by Act 313 of 1975 (R.S. 17:3217).

PROGRAM MISSION:

McNeese State University, a selective admissions institution, provides education, research, and service that support our core values of academic excellence, student success, fiscal responsibility, and university-community alliances. The University's fundamental educational mission is to offer associate, baccalaureate, and specific graduate curricula distinguished by academic excellence. The University engages in collaborative ventures to benefit industry and to enhance economic development and cultural growth in this region and beyond.

The foundation for student success begins with faculty commitment to excellence in teaching, research, and creative and scholarly activity. At McNeese State University, a member of the University of Louisiana System, students cultivate skills for critical thinking and effective expression and gain an understanding of the global community. The learning and social environment integrates discipline-specific knowledge with the values of lifelong learning, ethical responsibility, and civic engagement.

PROGRAM GOAL(S):

The goals for McNeese State University revolve around our commitment to four core values including Academic Excellence, Student Success, Fiscal Responsibility, and Community-University Alliances.

- 1. Increase Opportunities for Student Access and Success.
- 2. Ensure Quality and Accountability.
- 3. Enhance Services to Communities and State.

PROGRAM ACTIVITY:

McNeese State University is a four-year, public institution of higher learning that offers associate, baccalaureate, and specific graduate curricula distinguished by academic excellence. The institution is governed by the President and six divisions including the Division of Academic Affairs, the Division of Administration and Student Affairs, the Division of Business Affairs, the Division of Development and Public Affairs, the Division of Information Technology, and the Division of Special Services and Equity.

The Division of Academic Affairs is responsible for providing leadership and administrative oversight for delivering baccalaureate and graduate curricula distinguished by effective teaching, research, and service. Academic Affairs functions in accordance with institutional, University of Louisiana System Board of Supervisors, and Louisiana Board of Regents policies and procedures to deliver academic programs and to focus on improving student learning. The Office of Academic Affairs initiates and supports programs and community collaborations focused on enhancing economic development and cultural growth in Southwest Louisiana and beyond. Academic Affairs is responsible for accreditation and NCAA certification initiatives related to academics. The Division oversees six academic colleges including the College of Business, the Burton College of Education, the College of Engineering and Engineering Technology, the College of Liberal Arts, the College of Nursing, and the College of Science, as well as overseeing the Graduate School. Enrollment Management composed of the Office of Admissions and Recruiting, General and Basic Studies, the Office of Scholarship and Testing, and the Office of the Registrar report to Academic Affairs, as do the Offices of Institutional Effectiveness and Institutional Research, the Honors College, Frazar Memorial Library, and Office of Research Services, the Quality Enhancement Plan and the Write to Excellence Center.

The Division of Administration and Student Affairs is responsible for creating a campus culture that promotes the academic, emotional, physical, and social development of students within a safe and secure educational context. Administration and Student Affairs collaborates with all units of the University and with the broader Southwest Louisiana region to assist students in successfully navigating the collegiate environment and developing their full potential to become productive members of the community. The Division oversees the Offices of Administration and Student Affairs, Career Services, the Office of Financial Aid, the Office of Student Services, the Student Union, the Recreational Sports Complex, the University Bookstore, the University Police, and Burton Coliseum.

The Division of Business Affairs is responsible for providing overall management and supervision of the business and financial affairs of the university. Business Affairs informs and advises the President regarding the current and long-term developments of the business and financial affairs of the University. The Division oversees the Offices of Administrative Accounting, Budgeting, Business Affairs, Purchasing, and Facilities and Plant Operations.

The Division of Development and Public Affairs is responsible for serving as a clearinghouse for all funds derived from the private sector and for encouraging advancement of academic programs and research for the faculty while providing scholarship opportunities for students. The Vice President of Development and Public Affairs serves as a liaison between McNeese State University and the Foundation Board of Directors. The Division oversees the Foundation Office, the Alumni Association, and the Office of Public Information and Communications, the Office of Planned Giving & Donor Research, and Printing Services.

The Division of Special Services and Equity is responsible for ensuring that all students, faculty, and staff have an equal opportunity to participate in all aspects of University life. Special Services and Equity prepares the Affirmative Action Plan for Employment and manages affirmative actions for the recruitment and retention of minorities and women, the hiring process, diversity training programs, the applicant tracking system, as well as assisting the University administration on matters relating to institutional compliance. The Division implements and manages compliance with and promotes programs and activities to support the Americans with Disabilities Act and the Affirmative Action Program. The Division is committed to diversity, interculturalism, and equity by providing information, services, and training and development opportunities for faculty, staff, and students. The Division oversees the Offices of Human Resources, Student Employment, and Services for Students with Disabilities, and Upward Bound.

The Division of Information Technology is responsible for enhancing the role of information technology on the McNeese State University Campus, marketing the University and its programs, and offering coursework through electronic education opportunities. The Division oversees the Offices of Information Technology, University Computing Services, Electronic Learning, Technical Support and Networking Services, and the Technology Advancement Student Committee (TASC).

STATEMENT OF AGENCY STRATEGIES FOR DEVELOPMENT AND IMPLEMENTATION OF HUMAN RESOURCE POLICIES THAT ARE HELPFUL AND BENEFICIAL TO WOMEN AND FAMILIES:

McNeese State University has a Division of Special Services and Equity that oversees the Office of Human Resources in promoting policies that are equitable to all employees including those that are helpful and beneficial to women and families. Policies that may impact women and families include the Diversity Awareness Policy, the Code of Ethics, the McNeese MasterCard Policy, the Violence-Free Workplace Policy, the Faculty/Dependent Enrollment in University Classes Policy, the Maternity Leave Policy, and the Sexual Assault Policy. Institutional policies are brought before Executive Staff, approved by the University President, and disseminated to the campus community via the McNeese website, Faculty/Staff Handbook, Campus ListServe, and/or other means.

Women and families are served by an on-campus Counseling Center which includes the availability of an Employee Assistance Program. Families have the option of utilizing a church day-care center that caters to the needs of the campus community. Through the Recreation Complex, women and families may participate in weight training, aerobics, and swimming with summer programming offering daycare and swimming lessons. Infirmary services are available five days/week to meet the health care needs of women and families.
