Graduate Certificate in Reading Specialist Effective with the 2012-2013 Academic Catalog

After being admitted to the Dore' School of Graduate Studies, a candidate may earn a Graduate Certificate in Reading Specialist by completing the following coursework:

EDUC 627 EDUC 631 EDUC 632 EDUC 644 EDUC 645

Total hours: 15

No prerequisites are needed other than a baccalaureate degree. These 15 exceed the coursework requirements for the Louisiana Department of Education endorsement as a reading specialist. Note: EDUC 644 is not required for the reading specialist add-on endorsement; however, it is required for the Graduate Certificate.

For more information, contact the Office of Graduate Education Programs at gep@mcneese.edu or 337.475.5424.