

bachelor's degree

on campus

Liberal Studies

Degree Type: Bachelor of Arts (B.A.)
Program Length: 4 years (120 credit hours)

What Can You Do With an Degree in Liberal Studies?

Our Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Studies degree encompasses a broad range of subjects related to the humanities, arts and social sciences. As a student in the liberal studies program, you'll get an in-depth education into your content area and learn how to think analytically and critically, communicate effectively, research and understand a wide range of concepts, subjects and theories.

- Archivist
- Arts Administrator
- Community Development Worker
- Congressional Aide
- Copywriter
- Human Resources Specialist
- International Aid Worker
- Marketing Consultant
- Media Analyst

MCNEESE STATE UNIVERSITY

WHY MCNEESE?

Here are just a few reasons to make McNeese your first choice ...

Applied Learning:

McNeese's liberal studies concentrations offer small class sizes, immersive learning and internship and service-learning opportunities in a variety of settings. Whatever area you decide to focus on, you will have the opportunity to apply what you learn in the classroom to the real world.

Experienced Faculty:

The faculty in the Department of Liberal Arts include subject-matter experts, active researchers and published authors who are committed to ensuring student success both inside and outside the classroom.

Faculty-Directed Learning:

Through close consultation with experienced faculty, liberal studies majors have the chance to explore a specific area of their concentration that interests them and develop their skills in research, analysis, writing and critical thinking.

Student Organizations:

Housed in the College of Liberal Arts, the liberal studies degree program offers students the chance to join a number of on-campus student organizations, including the National Theatre Honor Society Alpha Si Omega, McNeese Debate Council, Multicultural Engagement, Philosophy Club and Pre-Law and Politics Society.

The College of Liberal Arts

The mission of the College of Liberal Arts is to lead students to pursue their interests, talents and passions through teaching excellence, academic rigor, research, practice and co-curricular activities and to prepare students for engagement with the world around them.

Liberal Studies Degree Concentrations

Geography

Study the elements of physical landscapes of the world and how they impact the economic systems and cultures of the people who live there.

Humanities

Students who are interested in a more broad exploration of liberal studies can major in humanities, which allows them to mix and match curricula from a variety of disciplines.

Philosophy

Engage with and explore theories about the nature of the human mind, free will and the foundations of knowledge and ethics from ancient Greece through the modern era.

Pre-Law

The pre-law concentration prepares students who want to continue their education at law school with a solid foundation in the judicial process, political philosophy and constitutional interpretation.

Theatre Arts

Get hands-on experience in all aspects of the stage, including performance, light and sound design and stage management.

Women and Gender Studies

Explore the interdisciplinary study of sex, sexuality, gender roles and stereotypes among different social, cultural and religious groups throughout history.

Apply Now!

MCNEESE
STATE UNIVERSITY

STUDENT CENTRALTM

4435 Ryan Street · Lake Charles, LA 70609

337-475-5065

studentcentral@mcneese.edu