Standardized Questions for McNeese State University Semi-Finalists

We, the McNeese State University Faculty Senate, in order to ensure that accurate information regarding the governing philosophy of the new McNeese State University President be presented to faculty for consideration, do hereby resolve that moderators of the faculty sessions with prospective candidates ask multiple standardized questions of each before open questions occur.

Resolution

Whereas, the university faculty have scheduled on-campus meetings with each semi-finalist candidate for the McNeese State University President, and

Whereas, there are essential financial and faculty morale issues that incoming candidates must be made aware of, and

Whereas, these issues must be addressed as part of the governing philosophy of the new President,

Therefore, be it resolved that:

1. The Faculty Senate tasks the moderator of faculty sessions with addressing the following core questions before the open question and answer period:
 - a. “How do you plan to retain and attract faculty when salaries are not competitive with the Southern Regional Education Board?”
 - b. “How do you plan to raise faculty and staff morale?”
 - c. “How do you intend to promote research and professional development?”
